We used to be perfect
Made it all worth it
Quitting school forget the rules
It never meant that much to me

But now we never get along
Stupid fights and arguments
They're about nothing at all Dillusions of how it used to be
Now it's changed spent my days
Thinking about all the days
We said we'd make our way back home
We'd never be alone

But whenever you're around
We always seem to have the best times
And I'm waiting for the sound of another fight gone
down
But I know that things will never change

Explosions on the line
Why do we do this everytime
You know I won't pick up the phone
All you'll hear is your own dial tone
We'll make our way back home
We'll never be alone

But whenever you're around
We always seem to have the best times
And I'm waiting for the sound of another fight gone
down
But I know that things will never change

We swore we'd make our way back home
We swore we'd make our way back home

But whenever you're around
We always seem to have the best times
And I'm waiting for the sound of another fight gone
down
But I know that things will never change
