I wait for you to say anything to make this seem a little less awkward
You look so empty and that's when you said we could never ever be

This puzzle's in pieces
Surrounded by footsteps
I let you go so you could find your heart
And when you are ready
You know I'll be waiting
Patiently again for love to start

You can't even look me in the face
What was it that made you feel this way
I would take back anything just to wear your ring
From Valentine's Day

This puzzle's in pieces
Surrounded by footsteps
I let you go so you could find your heart
And when you are ready
You know I'll be waiting
Patiently again for love to start

I can't get over the way you looked at me
When you said that we would be here forever
I can't take this time apart 'cause you know you have my heart
Always forever

Tears are rolling down my face
As we're packing up our place
We used to call
I can't take much more of this
Please give me one more kiss
Don't turn your face away

This puzzle's in pieces
Surrounded by footsteps
I let you go so you could find your heart
And when you are ready
You know I'll be waiting

Patiently again for love to start
