Rain drops are dripping down on the windscreen
But you know I ain't leaving till you come outside
I've tried but it's just too hard to forget
The times we've shared so I'm going insane

It's getting harder to breathe
And I just can't watch you leave
Maybe I just gotta say this to you

You're the Best that I ever had
And I'm never gonna let you go
I don't care if I'm not good enough
There's no way I'm gonna give up this love

I can't believe that you were going to leave
I texted you a plead to give me more time to think
I spent two whole nights without any sleep
Thinking would you come back cause I can't smile without you

It's getting harder to breathe
And I just can't watch you leave
Maybe I just gotta say this to you

You're the Best that I ever had
And I'm never gonna let you go
I don't care if I'm not good enough
There's no way I'm gonna give up this love

So I've Made up my Mind
Gonna Kneel down before You
Gonna Take your hand
And put on this ring
Gonna Ask you to come back
Cause I Can't watch you leave
There's no one that Loves Me like You do...
