"Can I Be The One?"

If I were to leave,
Part myself from this world
Believe me when I say,
That I have, no regrets
I saw an angel before me
Your beauty is alluring
If only I could be the one who wipes your tears

Would you please share with me
Each waking moment in life
Let me be your angel
Who catches you when you fall
Know that my feelings are true
All I'll need is your love
All that I ask for,
Is a chance to let me love you

I wake up everyday
Wishing to find the one
The one who would guide me,
Back into love again
I knew that you were the one,
When our eyes first met
If only I could be the one who holds your hand

If only I had a chance
To show you how I feel
How I think day & night,
Of nothing but loving you
Can I be the one,
Who shows you true love
If only you would,
Allow me to love you
