I just want to say hello to you
But you're not looking my way everytime, and clearly,
I think I lost my mind back there and then
Oh, how I let my feelings go

You see I know it's just a crush
And a crush won't ever last long
No one's forcin' it girl
And I think it's safe to say
That friends we would be onwards

Sadly, you took my smile away,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away
I think it's best that it stays this way,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away

You just want to say hello to me,
Now the tables turn and I'm not looking,
Don't get it wrong,
It's just that I can't stand it no more,
So let's make this story short

You see I know it's just a crush
And a crush won't ever last long
No one's forcin' it girl
And I think it's safe to say
That friends we would be onwards

Sadly, you took my smile away,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away
I think it's best that it stays this way,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away

Oh
Why did it have to turn out this way?
Now it's just way too late
Maybe Baby we've got it
All Wrong

Sadly, you took my smile away,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away
I think it's best that it stays this way,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away

Sadly, you took my smile away,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away
I think it's best that it stays this way,
Everytime you look my way
It fades away
