"Why'd You Leave?"

I watch you fast asleep...
Lying, in my arms...
I wanted to tell you...
How much, you meant to me...

I wanted you to stay...
Didn't want to let you, go...
Why did you leave?
Now I'm stranded, on my own...

All the times we sharred...
Vanishing as you leave me...
You left me stranded on my own...
Only with a broken heart...

I wanted you to stay...
Didn't want to let you, go...
Why did you leave?
Now I'm stranded, on my own...

Now you're walking out that door...
Leaving me in silence...
Tears starts to drip...
Can this heart ever be mended?
The distance between us start spread...
Will we, ever meet again?
