Help me, help me.....help me

Let us share this hope
That we may close our eyes in peace
Follow what may rise from this
Standing in the halls of grace
Let my people go
Was the cry I heard from far away
I should have known
Not to trust every word I heard them say

Help me, help me.....help me

There's a face I can see
Staring back in desperation
Nowhere to turn to now
Drowning in this sea of fate
Don't run! Don't hide!
The devil will find you anywhere
We should never have lied
The sin was always there

Help me, help me.....help me

This choice must be free
Answers do not grow on trees
We must face our enemies
With faith in one another
Don't fall down! Don't lie down!
You can lean on me my friend
The future may not bring us luck
But together we can go down fighting!

Help me, help me.....help me
Help me, help me.....help me
