Just for a thrill
You changed the sunshine to rain
And just for a thrill
You filled my heart with so much pain

To me you were my pride and joy
Oh, but to you, I was merely a toy
A plaything, a plaything, a plaything
That you could toss around at will

And just for a thrill, a thrill, a thrill
You made my life, you made my life one sad song
And just for a thrill
You took me by the hand and you just led, ooh led me along

And although you're free
I know you're havin' fun
Oh, but to me and in my heart
You'll still be the only one

Because you, oh, you made my Heart stand still, yeah
[Incomprehensible] thrill, thrill, yeah
