No more excuses now, can't let your brothers down.
Be grateful be honest, there's no fucking way in hell I could fail.

Bound by blood we'll fight to the death.

My betrayal has forsaken my closest allies.

I'll take this to the grave, dishonest, unforgiving, I cannot erase this.

Bound by blood, I'll pray forgiven, forgiven.

I shall tackle these lies, put to hell with me, yeah!

The truth with me.

I will be sent back to hell.

Bound by blood, we'll fight to the death.

Together we ride.

Never again will I turn a blind eye.

Together we stand, we will be sent back to hell forever,
forever.
