Well you send my life a whirlin',
darling when you're twirlin',
on the floor.
And who cares about tomorrow?
What more is tomorrow, than another day?
When you swept me away.
Yeah, you swept me away.
I see the end of the rainbow.
But what more is a rainbow,
then colors out of reach?
If you come down to my window,
and I climb out my window,
then we'll get out of reach.
Then you swept me away.
Yeah, you swept me away.
You said, with such honest feeling, but what'd you really mean when you said that I'm your man?
Well, how my darlin' can it be,
when you have never seen me,
And you never will again?
That you swept me away.
Yeah, you swept me away.
Life is ever changing,
but I will always find a constant and comfort in your love.
With your heart, my soul is bound.
And as we dance, I know that heaven can be found.
Well you send my life a whirlin',
darling when you're twirlin',
on the floor.
And who cares about tomorrow?
What more is tomorrow, than another day?
When you swept me away.
Yeah, you swept me away.
Yeah, you swept me away.
