How can I pretend that I like your new friend
When all I want is you?
How can I put up with him saying "buttercup"
When all I want is you?
All I want is you

We've been through all this before, it's not funny anymore
That all I want is you
It's getting quite absurd, the worst hang up ever heard
of
That all I want is you
All I want is you

I keep telling you, I've got lots of things to do
I've got girlfriends old and new
You keep telling me that "It's crazy", and it's true that it's crazy
But I'm not, but

I keep telling you, I've got lots of things to do
I've got boyfriends old and new
'Cause starting up again would be nothing but insane
And a messed-up thing to do

It's painful to admit, but I've been feeling like shit
'Cause all I want is you
It's getting quite absurd, the worst hang up ever heard
That all I want is you
All I want is you

No! I gotta get a hobby, something soothing for my soul
To get my mind off you
I'm gonna get a job and a cute little dog
Then look for someone new
And forget I ever wanted you

I keep telling you, I've got lots of things to do
I've got girlfriends old and new

it's crazy
But I'm not, yet

I keep telling you, I've got lots of things to do
I've got boyfriends old and new
'Cause starting up again would be nothing but insane
And a messed-up thing to do

How can I pretend that I like your new friend
When all I want is you?
It's getting quite absurd, the worst hang up ever heard
That all I want is you
All I want is you
All I want is you
