Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others Gimme strength to endure when I'm fed up with this world

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others Gimme strength to endure when I simply hate this

Oh, it's a pretty idea, walk this world like a messiah
But it will bring you to tears, and people will call you a liar

And when the scorners in the corners spread their anguish every morning
I just wish that there's a God that can hear me

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I'm fed up with this

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I simply hate this

When people passing you by, you'll always be a child in yearning

You say that you will get by, but the sadness in your heart is burning

And here comes Chuck, he says "Lend me a buck" Next thing you're lying on the sidewalk bleeding

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I'm fed up with this

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I simply hate this

Oh Lord, I need your help now

To feel love 'cause I've forgotten how

And it's so hard you see

When all the scrutinizers, brutalizers, hipster jerks and bad advisors

Make my ears and my eyes bleed

I said, please!
Oh, Lord!

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I'm fed up with this

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others
Gimme strength to endure when I simply hate this

Give me love, oh, give me love to give Give me love, oh, give me love to give
Give me love, oh, give me love to give
Give me love, oh, give me love to give

(Ooh yeah gimme gimme love)

Gimme love, gimme love, gimme love to give to others Gimme strength to endure when I simply hate this

Say will my prayer be heard?
