Sacrifice in a crowded place
Human bomb, death embrace
Explosion inflicting fear and pain
Only remains burning flesh

Returning to ashes, dwelling in dust
Everything is burning, vision of hell
Innocents dismembered and charred
And everywhere burning flesh

Sacrifice in a crowded place
Human bomb, death embrace
Explosion inflicting fear and pain
Only remains burning flesh

Damage in the name of hate
Sore heavy misery weight
Such horror, who is to blame?
Insanity has overcome

Returning to ashes, dwelling in dust
Everything is burning, vision of hell
Innocents dismembered and charred
And everywhere burning flesh

Sacrifice in a crowded place
Human bomb, death embrace
Explosion inflicting fear and pain
Only remains burning flesh

Scared women shouting
Frightened people run away
Bloody bones are burning
Only remains the smell of burning flesh
