I thought it heals but it never does, I see you dancing in the club. You were right and I was wrong and here I am singing another song (repeat).

I loved you so, is that too much to ask for?

Cause when you left you let go of our love. You tore me to pieces you never took control. It was always me to help you when you fell. Now
You've left me with nothing at all.

Now here I am down on my knees praying for someone to love me.

Cause when you left you let go of our love, our love,
our love.
Ohhhh. I want you back to snuggle up in your arms. But your gone, I had my chance and I did nothing wrong, you just left me on the cold dry
floor

Now please, please, please comeback (repeat).

What happened to our love?
