Tuesday, and her beauty is a rope around my neck Okay, with my wounds exposed I'm sure i will get over it, get over it
Get over it again cause it's a good, good day for anything.

Tuesday, and now the difference is pounding in my chest woahkay ill pull my hat over my eyes and just get over
it, get over it,
get over it again cause its a good, good day for
anything.
And iiiiii really want to cryyyyyy but i think ill just get over it, get over it
get over it again cause it's a good, good day for
anything.

Tuesday and i still cant get the knives out of my back, woahkay i'll find a place to lay my head and just get over it, get over it, get over it again
cause it's a good, good day for anything.
and llllll really want to cryyyyy but i think ill just get over it, get over it, get over it again cause it's a good day for
anything.

You give me nothing, and i'll write ten songs about it, there are only three left and i still dont understand anything.

Tuesday and im tripping over every word she said, woahkay ill find the truth between the lines and just get over it, get over it, get over it again ill just get over it, get over it, get over it again, ill just get over it, get over it, get over it again cause it's a good, good day for anything.
