Nostradamus, do you think that you can mention me?
And tell me:did you dedicate a page?
Did you see me dancing, in stilettos in a summer dress
And tell me, will she love me again?
I said I figured it out, it's been a long time coming
And I think about it, think about it, a long time come
I did some thinking and I did some growing
And I'm gunna shake your body like a kick drum
I'd like to lay you down
And taste you at the delta like I've got somethin' to prove
I said,"I figured it out, I got nothin' to lose"
She said,"so what, I hurt there too"
I hurt there too
I hurt there
She said, I hurt there too
Nostradamus, do you think that you can mention me?
And tell me:did you dedicate a page?
Did you see me break down, in the desert in my wedding gown?
And tell me, will she hurt me again?
I figured it out, I can screw like Clinton
And you pushed your body right into me like a gun
And my eyes are lazy, just like my emotions
And you pushed your body right into me like a gun

I'd like to lay you down
And shake you up the middle like I got somethin' to prove
I said,"I figured it out, I got nothin' to lose"
She said,"so what, I hurt there too"
I hurt there too
I hurt there
She said,"I hurt there too"
I figured it out, I am an obscene gesture
And that every passing minute is a sexual phase
A phallic illusion in the royal procession
And now every pressing sentence is a wrong page
I'd like to lay you down
And kiss you at the crossroads like I've got somethin' to prove
I said,"I figured it out, I got nothin' to lose"

She said, "so what, I hurt there too"
I hurt there too
I hurt there
She said, "I hurt there too"
I hurt there too
I hurt there too
I hurt there
She said, "I hurt there too"
Hey, everybody just dancing
Hey, everybody just smiled
Hey, everybody's just so sorry that Everybody just had to lie and
I'm a butcher, I'm a baker
