

Avi Buffalo

"What's In It For"

Visit "What's In It For" on MotoLyrics.com

I walked in on a plan to dissolve all of your wishes
But I couldn't help your mouth which I missed by two inches
Maybe I thought that you and I could run away alongside
But I didn't understand I was a cold tear in your rawhide
What's in it for someone with nothing to do?
What's in it for me?

What's in it for someone with nothing to do?
What's in it for me?

I can read but I won't if I'm sleeping here without you
And all these things that you learn, I've been knowing since my childhood
You are tiny and your lips are like little pieces of bacon
I can feel you on fire 'cause you're drunk and I seem too cool

What's in it for someone with nothing to do?
What's in it for me?

What's it in for someone with nothing to do?
What's it in for me?

Know I love it when you put your fingertips around my shoulders
Should I take you to more functions or would you rather be lonely?
I feel like I'm messing up too much and I forget where I am
You are so much wiser and I'm used to stretching things out so long

What's in it for someone with nothing to do?
What's in it for me?

What's in it for someone with nothing to do?
What's in it for me?

