Hang on it won't take long now Luna
The scientists they never know the time
Fooling us is just like stealing candy
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up and it's time
The sun is out, it's just another morning
To the people that bought out at christmas time
But faulty rumors kick you out of heaven
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up and it's time

And giving up on people hey that's fine
Like the people that bought out at christmas time
But faulty rumors kick you out of heaven-sent
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up and it's time
And all of your life, you've been finding ways to hide
You're imitating life, and you'll find that you're find
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up and it's time
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up and it's time
Ah, you'll never know, you wake up feelin' lost you know it's time
Go back to mars
