Never lost someone I've trusted
People are lying every day
People lying or just leaving
Safer distance away
On and on and on I've been re-routed
Angry for so long I'm losing faith again
Giving in to friends they make me crowded
Angry when they always go away
So you won't have to tell me now I guess
Not with everybody here
I feel safer when I'm lonelier than this
Safer still and I pray
So you won't have to tell me now I guess
Not with everybody here
I feel safer when I'm lonelier than this
Safer still and I pray

People lying or just leaving
Leaving, it's the only time to pray
Leaving crying or just leaving you and me
Safer distance away
On and on and on I've been re-routed
Angry for so long I'm losing faith again
Giving into friends they make me crowded
Angry when they always go away again
So you won't have to tell me now I guess
Not with everybody here
I been safer when I'm lonelier than this
Safer still and I pray
Cause anyone you've ever cared for
Stay for hours while you lose
Cause anyone you've barely known a while
Stay for hours while you lose
