(Feat. Vera Ostrova)

What if I... got right into
My mind's velocity
What if I... finally discovered
The rules of Eternity

What if I tell you
What we live for... what we die for
What if I tell you
That you will be born again

What if I tell you
What we live for... what we die for
What if I tell you
That you will be born again... and you will do
It all over agin

Will you stop running? Will you stop hiding?
And looking for material things
Will you start searching... will you start seeking for
Your immortal wings
