Breathe slowly, Inhale exhale, a path I've already walked, but I just can't stop It's too familiar, this same routine, as I live day by day, it slowly eats at me

My bones and my tongue ache, from my failed
attempts to make some sense
Of why I won't let you out of my sight Cuz' I'll never taste a love that could be as sweet as I had with you
So bury that trace of affection for me, and I'll force my feet to move

Breathe slowly, Inhale exhale, but it's not me you want, will I ever stop I tried to believe that you would never share this bed with anyone but me
But now I see that I can't change you My bones and my tongue ache, from my failed
attempts to make some sense
But I'm done trying, to make you see that I'll never taste a love that could be as sweet as I had with you
So bury that trace of affection for me, and I'll force my feet to move

Bury me tonight
