I used, to split the sea with the air I exhaled from my lungs
Now I, can barely breathe, as my feet sink deeper, and my heart grows weaker

Bitter sweet is the taste that fills my mouth
I've known it now for three long years
I've been craving the taste of the air
It's all I have to keep me alive
Bring to me this air, and let it wrap it's arms around me
I feel it sway against my body as I smile
So fill these lungs, let's make this last Cuz' I don't know if I will ever feel this way

Cuz' I finally know, where to go and it's been here from the start
Cuz' I finally know, where I'm home and it's been here from the start

I will not stop until I fill my lungs
I will not stop until I find my home
Fill my lungs now
Fill my lungs
Bitter sweet is all I taste
Bring me back to life

Bring to me this air, and let it wrap it's arms around me
I feel it sway against my body as I smile
So fill these lungs, let's make this last Cuz' I don't know if I will ever feel this way again

Oh I'd split the sea again if I could These scars are proof that I've felt love in all of it's best and all of it's worst
This is the day that I know, that I'm finally home, but the bitter sweet still stays
I'm ready to breathe again
