Bill of goods or just a fake tattoo
I bought everything to be like you

Emptied out and try to fill the hole
Weigh the value with an empty soul
Now I can see where-

[Chorus:]

The boundaries have no end
Trinidad and a DC-10

Bigger promise
A forgetful boy
Catch the thief of all the stolen joy

When the darkness breathes its final breath

Then the morning comes to rescue us
So we can be-

[Chorus]

And I finally find significance
Giving up
I'm given all you are

I'm on a breakthrough
I won't desert you
I'm on a breakthrough-

[Chorus]

Gonna fly with all my friends
Trinidad and a DC-10

Where the boundaries have no end
Trinidad and a DC-10
