(Welcome to Bimbos, may I take your order)
Yeah, can I have a big bimbo box meal, hold the bimbo sauce
Two super sized freaky fries and a make me shiver shake
(I know who this is, how you doing?)
I'm doing good sweetheart, how are you?
(I'm okay anyway drive around to the second window please)

Baby, remember how you were as a child
Everything was up and nothing down
Every day was hopes and dreams no fears
Whatever happened to those years?

Let's rent a private jet and escape
Fly to Paris walk on Champs-Élysées
Let's live your dreams
Wag your tail for me

I cannot read your mind
When you're happy, baby, show me a sign
Just let me see
You wag your tail for me, ooh

Baby, don't depend on what you see Everything's perception not reality
Life has thrown some curves but we'll throw them back Straighten out what's wrong and get back on track

I called your boss on the telephone and said, my baby's flying off to Rome
Let Wendy take the register, let Cindy sweep the floors and Let Joe and Dem close the store, my baby needs a dream
My baby needs a dream and I'm taking her
Wherever seems to make her happy

Baby, baby, you can live your dreams Let's not settle for anything, you deserve the best of things

Honey child let's go ride in the car
And we'll fly as far as our minds can conceive

Let's rent a private jet and escape
Fly to Paris walk on Champs-Élysées
Let's live your dreams
Wag your tail for me

I cannot read your mind
When you're happy, baby, show me a sign
Just let me see
You wag your tail for me, ooh

Let's rent a private jet and escape
Fly to Paris walk on Champs-Élysées
Let's live your dreams
Wag your tail for me

I cannot read your mind
When you're happy, baby, show me a sign
Just let me see
You wag your tail for me, ooh

If you're happy show me a sign
Wag your tail for me

Reality is meant to defy
Wag your tail for me

If you're happy show me a sign
Wag your tail for me

Reality is meant to defy
Wag your tail for me
