Here it is a beating heart inside the same blood covered box.

Here is every word, every bleeding knife,
From your deceiving hands.

Here is every word.

Written in blood.

Here it is a beating heart.

Forgive me for thinking you were real.

Forgive me for thinking this was real.

You fuckin' liar.

I hope your life is a living hell.

I hope that everytime you breath you suffer.

Kill yourself.

Here is every word.

Written in blood.

I hope your life is a living hell.
