"Breathing By Wires"

Addicted to razors
Lashes to saviors
Glued to the monitor
Trained behavior
Reduced to a number
Mechanic enslavement
A virtual prison
Selected detainment
A gradual nightmare
Suicidal impulse
A cycle of habit
Undeniable loss
Breathing by wire
A network of heroes
Processing data of ones and zeroes
Carry me through the wires
Bury me in the screen
Shift me into this fixation
Cling to the machine
This i your world now
And you barely made it
Did you think that i would cradle you
Until you were asleep forever?
Did you?
Carry me through the wires
Bury me in the screen
Shift me into this fixation
Cling to the machine
This is your world
And you barely made it
Did you think i could cradle you
Until you were asleep forever?
Did you?
