"Once And For Real"

You could shake the stars out of the sky
Doesn't matter, our faiths will collide
You can pull the plug out
Watch all the water strain
Still I know it would be the same,
Still I know it would be the same

I see it in my mind's eye
A world made just for you and I
So I know, it's worth the wait

[Chorus]
Oh, once is enough, that's how I feel
We do this once and for real
Love, is strong enough
So here's the deal,
We do this once and for real

I'm building my life to include you
So for now I have someone to look for ad
I'm in no hurry, no worries, you're out there somewhere
Still I hope you will be here soon,
Still I hope you will be here soon

I see it in my mind's eye
A world made just for you and I
So I know, it's worth the wait

[Chorus]

(I'm waiting for something)
(I'm waiting for someone)
(I'm waiting for you)

[Chorus]

(dadadadadada)
