"Take Me Away"

Don't say no to anything,
Yes, yes, say yes to everything,
Just find away, to get away (wanna run away?)
Let's take off our clothes, and see if anybody notices
Then run away, what d'you say?
Have a little joy have a little faith, live life
Have a little hope have a lot of fun

[Chorus]

'Cause you, you, you never know what fate will throw,
To make you stop,
I, I, I'm gonna try
To let this life
Pick me up and take me away

Run up to a stranger,
Kiss and tell them that you love them,
And then walk away,
You made their day (at least you hope you did)
Stand up in a restaurant,
Start dancing on the table,
Get kicked out for that behavior (oops I did it again)
Have a little joy have a little faith, live life
Have a little hope have a lot of fun

[Chorus]

Don't you know that nothing equals nothing,
Do anything, do everything, do something
Open up your mouth and let your soul sing

You, you, you never know what faith will throw,
To make you stop

[Guitar solo]

You, you, you never know what fate will throw,
To make you stop
I'm gonna try,
To let this life,
Pick me up and take me away
