Let's give love a chance
Let's not rush to break up
There is always time to say we're through
I don't think we're giving love a chance, do you?
Let's give love a chance
There's so much to take up
Darling, with our hearts against the wall
I don't think we're giving love a chance at all

We can just merely hold something dearly
Then let it go so casually
I think sincerely, if we think clearly
We'll never set each other free

So let's save our romance
While we still can save it
While the music plays, why stop a dance
Darling let's be fair
And let's give love a chance
