The damage has been done
There's nothing i can do
When will i realize
What i've done to you
Fuck, i don't know
Fuck, you don't care
Maybe i'll just shoot myself
And go down with the air
And everyone's talking about money
And everyone's talking about fame
Living life in hell would just
Be the same
But who are we now (X2)
Gun shot to the head
Is the easy way out
But garbage has been said
And now everybody's talking about
Death
And everyone's talking about money
And everyone's talking about fame
Living life in hell would just
Be the same
Something must be done
Nothing will go right
Even if it means getting high
And losing your life
Tell us
Who are we now (X2)
Gun shot to the head
Is the easy way out
But garbage has been said
And now everybody's talking about
Death
Think of all that death would do
If we didn't just stay alive
But death is coming soon
Gun shot to the head
Is the easy way out
But garbage has been said
And now everybody's talking about
Death
Think of all that death would do

If we didn't just stay alive
But death is coming soon, oh (X3)
