When the beat gets get loud, near the matches [flame]
They hopin he get through it, in the lightning and rain.
Makin ears from the sounds and the drums from the crowd gathered,
Hootenanny as the wind banging the house down

Hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany
Wind bang the house down!

As you can see it's a very heavy night,
If you know what's best for you,
You'll run home and hide,
If you can keep your mind
There's a chance you will survive

Now the winds getting strong and there's not much you can say
Your minds getting tiny and you're losing your way
From the top shout "heavy, heavy"
Stop! shout "heavy, heavy!"
HOP! you're movement gonna keep you in reality

Hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany
Wind bang the house down!

As you can see it's a very heavy night,
If you know what's best for you,
You'll run home and hide,
If you can keep your mind there's a chance you will survive x 2

Hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany hootenanny-nany
Wind bang the house down! x4
