Beyond my culinary knowledge
I found a fascinating flavour
The subtle taste of human flesh
Something that's usually taboo

Rich in proteins
And unlimited
Human bodies will never end
Tons of people die every day

Eating human corpses
Don't turn me into a criminal
If I don't kill anyone
Who cares what's my food...
I just take cadavers
From morgues and graveyards
Fuck the worms, it's my food
I'm gonna take it all

Biceps, things and gluteus
Are the most tender meaty parts
I have to take them all
Before they start to rot away

Beyond my culinary knowledge
I found a fascinating flavour
The subtle taste of human flesh
Something that's usually taboo

I have an oddity
I like my meat overdone
I like my meat nearly burnt
Burnt but Not Carbonized

Lost of crusty human ribs
Succulent red entercode
Tasty well-done steak
A human barbecue

Eating human corpses
Don't turn me into a criminal
If I don't kill anyone

Who cares what's my food...
I just take cadavers
From morgues and graveyards
Fuck the worms, it's my food
I'm gonna take it all

I have an oddity
I like my meat overdone
I like my meat nearly burnt
Burnt but Not Carbonized
