[Music: Furni / Lyrics: Dave Rotten / Guest Vocals:
Bjoern Goosses]

When mommy died the family had to continue
Years passed and daddy got a hot new girlfriend
The two sons were not satisfied with the situation
Life at home was getting tensed and unbearable

The poor girl was a victim
The brothers were tracing a plan to make her life a hell
Submitting her to a psychic torture
Until her nerves could not resist and get her leaving home

And they did succeed
