Melodies they are attracting me
I come closer, because I want to see
What is claiming my attention?
Are there reasons to be affraid?
When I'm almost there,
I hesitate
The smell of a thousand roses
So wonderful.
Makes me overcome my fears
I go in, oh preserve my soul
Everything, into oblivion, it's paradise
When an angel sings for me, into oblivion
It's paradise, when angels sing for me
Almost like a fairy tale
Better than anything real

Almost like a fairy tale
Spirits and spells I inhale
When i describe the feeling
Its gonna lose it's meaning
Perhaps having no meaning
Is the nature of it's being
These things that happen to me
Leave a trail of devistation
But i know they'll bring me closer
To my final destination.
E verything, into oblivion, it's paradise
When an angel sings for me, into oblivion
It's paradise, when angels sing for me
