Visit "Golden Dawn" on MotoLyrics.com

From this hill down to the lake
I've found a moment to be free
And now I'm gonna dream

I was too much blind to see
The answer to my fears inside of me
That no... No one could feel

Please God answer to my prayer
Don't let this charming Sun fall again
Make all my dreams come true
Don't waste my own land with the night
Let this day last forever
Since now I will always be free

Uuuuhh... Uuuuhh... Now my heart is cold
I want to be alone and be touched by the warmth of the Sun

You will start to cry
If you don't see the light
But if you see this Golden Dawn shining on your face
All tears will fade away

[Solo]

You will start to cry
If you don't see the light
But if you see this Golden Dawn shining on your face
All tears will fade
You will start to cry
If you don't see the light
But if you look to the Dawn you will see
That all tears will fade away

All tears will fade away...
