I work so hard for all the things we got
Now she wants to put me outside in the cold
She's wants the house all the property
Everytime the phone ring the lawyers calling me
She don't want to give me visitation rights
The rest of my clothes that I left last night
I saw her in the arms of another man, dressed to kill
Who does she think she is
Who does she think she is

She won't agree to no settlement
She says that she'll need me when it's time to pay her rent
How did she get such a wild idea
My dear mother-in-law is always in a fear
She don't wanna settle it out of court
She acts as though letter that I wrote
I ain't gonna beg borrow or steal, I feel a chill
Who does she think she is
Who does she think she is

I'm given her just ten more days
Reconsider, see if she'll change her ways
Other man has no sympathy
And he's not giving me my beneficiary
She changed the locks won't give me no key
She took my insurance policy
I ain't gonna cry she'd no tears, you better chill
Who does she think, think she is

I ain't going for that
No, no, no
Who does she think she is, yeah
The girl must think she's the queen
Maybe she is, she sure locked me down in a hole
I tell ya she's mean, she took me to the cleaners
But who does she think she is
I ain't going for that
No, no, no, no, no, no
Who does she think she is
