Darling, unveil your face, go on and cry your blues

You know I'm so glad trouble don't last always

Remember you told me I would never hear you say
Remember you told me I would never hear you say That is the reason, darling, why I can't say goodbye

I'm gonna find someone to love me, someone I can call
my own

my own

You know, I'm so tired of staying in this world alone

Darling, you don't want me, you really treat me like a slave

Darling, you don't want me, you really treat me like a
slave

You know, some of these mornings I'll be dead and in my grave
