"A Sudden Chill"

A sudden chill broke the dream he leans away from Where he is, he laughs or tries to laugh and thinks to himself

That's the very reason
I have opened this you reminded me
I responded in the other way

He's walking through the temple door
what secrets are in his mind?
Explaining to himself the thoughts of the day but he leaves one thing out

that's the very reason
I have opened this
You reminded me
I responded in the other way
