(B+R+M. Gibb / A. Galuten)
Baby when there's only one embrace
One is just enough for two
When do I learn
Young fingers get burned
Never my love
And when everyone has been a friend
Windy day we never knew
Now nothing can stand
The way it was planned
No baby nothing could be good as
Nothing could be good as loving you
Even though you're far away
Your movie plays in my mind
Your world is what you see
Let it be me
And I can make you warm at night
But I need to be sure you got love enough
To know
Never, never...
And when every cloud has lost its glow
Raining on my avenue
When do I hide
That nothing inside
When baby nothing could be good as
Nothing could be good as loving you
Even though you're far away
Your movie plays in my mind
Your world is what you see
Let it be me
And I can make you warm at night
But I need to be sure you got love enough
To know
Never, never...
And when everyone has gone away
Sing to the almighty
If it's what you need to feel
The world is real
And baby nothing could be good as
Nothing could be good as loving you
Even though you're far away
Your movie plays in my mind

Your world is what you see
Let it be me
And I can make you warm at night
But I need to be sure you got love enough
To know
Never, never...
