And watching, and watching yourself die

And the sparkle in your eyes

Angel, i swear your heart is black

And the stars like cigarette burns in the backdrops of our lives

Well i wont sit there and watch you die

I wont watch you die

Your end is on the bottom of my list of things to do today

Infact, it's not even there at all

Your fall will become my greatest fear

Porcelain, becomes her reflection, as she says the words hope im okay

Porcelain, becomes her reflection, as she says the
words hope im okay

Destroy, destroy what you love

Destroy, destroy what you love

I'll set you down a bed of roses i'll kiss the daggers

I'll trace the scars with my lips a kiss makes everything better

Porcelain, becomes her reflection, as she says the words if im okay

Porcelain, becomes her reflection, as she says the
words if im okay

Destroy what you love

I'll swallow your sickness [X4]
