All I need is you
So wait for me to come back home
And we'll do it all

It started with a simple stare
'Twas all a joke till we realized
That everything is going right

Oh how I love to reminisce
All the times we just could not resist
To look, to stare at each other's eyes

Cause I am right here
And I'm not there
This distance sucks
I have to say
I wish that it is summer everyday

For all I think about is you
Let my mind explode if it will do
You just don't stop running in my head

I want to see you beside me
Hold your hand as we watch TV
But at the moment it's impossible

Cause I am right here
And I'm not there
This distance sucks
I have to say
I wish that it is summer everyday

So I can be with you on Sundays
Sing with you on every Saturday
No day is really dull at all

And I miss all the fun we do
If I have the chance I'll do it all again with you
For I am missing you so bad

But I am right here
And I'm not there

This distance sucks
I have to say
I wish that it is summer everyday

So I can hold you close and kiss you
Tell you stories I have never shared before
And laugh at all the funny lines

Oh baby I want you forever
And I believe we are forever
I'm yours, That won't change
All the time

Though I'm right here
And I'm not there
We're miles apart
Still I can tell
That I will stay in love you everyday

All I need is you
So wait for me to come back home
And we'll do it all

All I need is you
So wait for me to come back home
And we'll do it all
Again

We'll do it all again
Yeah, yeah, yeah
We'll do it all
Again
