Can somebody open your eyes
Will somebody put on the lights
Your lids block out the fucking sun
The light of the world is totally gone

The fire in your burning mind
Facial contures god wasn't kind
Malformed you're deformed
Your lot in life you have to be scorned

I have such sights to show you (x2)

Open your eyes and you will see
Open your eyes a truth to be
I'll make you see dali style
I'll make you see scalpel style (x3)

I have such sights to show you
Optic nerves, these optic nerves
These optic nerves, these optic nerves

I'm der dokter you won't see
Thought locked on a killing spree
Forget your sight, forget your eyes
Dump the vision the ultimate lie!

Sight is black and blacker still
No sunrise, just a black sun set
Blinded by your eyelid flesh
Doomed in darkness, hurah hurah (hurrah hurrah)

Open your eyes and you will see
Open your eyes a truth to be
I'll make you see dali style
I'll make you see scalpel style

Open your eyes and you will see
Open your eyes a truth to be
I'll make you see dali style
I'll make you see mother fucking scalpel style
