

As Bold As Lions "Open Your Eyes"

Visit "Open Your Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

You're heading for disaster, and everyone can see it
but you

Open your eyes and take this all in

but you

Caught it your lies once again, and filled with bitterness

Destruction is where this leads, you know the ending

Yet you wont slow down, and bite your tongue

Your castle, it sits on quicksand

And your walls are built with half-truths

Open your eyes and take this all in

'Cause you're heading for disaster and everyone can see it but you

Everyone can see this, but it's not too late

Find The Center, He's calling you by name

Broken then restored,

Before You I'm made whole
