This pain that I guide
Are all these things you left behind
My mind is Numb
To thing of an escaping plan
My arms are so weak
To climb these walls
You built
My words are lost
To these wings so strong

So I stand as the Horizons end
And I think to myself
That life is just pain
But I'm
Addicted to this pain

But I wont let this bring me down
Deep inside I
Know that I'm still strong
The fire still burns inside me
To this world I'm
Not the one to follow

I'm just the person
I always used to be
Break
This down

So I stand as the horizons end
And I think to my self
That
Life is just pain
But I'm addicted to this pain

Past is like the Dust
There is always the wind
To remind you
That always will be around
You

Even if you don't see it

But I won't let this bring me down
Deep
Inside I know that I'm still strong
The fire still burns inside me
To this
World I'm not the one to follow

To this world I'm not the one to follow...
