His hands become unclean as he overthrows a fortress that stands for righteousness [x2]

We will play this little game on life lost tombs
What to give? We're all fucking dead...
Your eyes say to, "submit your fucking weakness"
How long? We're all fucking dead...

The day is justice so see who lives to be left alone

My Power, My Curse
I was once alive but now I am dead
My Power, My Curse
I was once alone but now I am found

Punch the time card to clock out another day
This routine leaves us weary.

My Power, My Curse
I was once alive but now I am dead
My Power, My Curse
I was once alone but now I am found

So see who lives their own life
One for the money, two for the show
Let's get it... we go
Leave your own life it's your game
This is just the end...

The day is justice so see who lives to be left alone

My Power, My Curse
I was once alive but now I am dead
My Power, My Curse
I was once alone but now I am found

Punch the time card to clock out another day
This routine leaves us weary.

My Power, My Curse
I was once alive but now I am dead
My Power, My Curse

I was once alone but now I am found

So we'll play the little game

Submit your lies

What to give? We're all fucking dead!
