

As Night Falls "False Sense Of You"

Water falls down,
From the rooftops of the abused
And the ignored.
No one hears cries,
Too busy with their own lives.
Tragedy strikes the hearts of the fallen.

Take me away.
My False sense of you.
Leave my life,
And take me away.

Now the times change.
Your yearn for life is growing stronger.
You can taste is on your lips.
The bitter sweetness of losing it all.

The silence was deafening.
And there's no one to blame.
So don't say you're sorry now.
So don't say that I'm to blame.
