Taking all the time in the world to make up your mind.
Can only make me wonder why I'm still waiting here tonight.
Hoping for the smoke to fill my lungs.
So I can breathe you in.
Stained glass was brokedn adn our lives were taking time.
We're losing our grip and we're slipping free.
The page has turned,
the bridge has burned.
I'm throughwaiting in this lifetime and I won't wait for you.
Telling time to run away,
it's so hard to do.
I can't define the words you say.
They say leave it all behind.
We can't slow down.
Time will pass us by.
We can't slow down.
She will pass us by.
No Turing Back.
Time won't heal these wounds I have.
In broken glass.
Time won't heal these wounds I have.
