"Succumb to Violence"

Ladies and Gentleman the time has come for us to fall we watch in si-tu Broadcast through the air waves of this city
we watch, we watch and learn Witness to a common crime, offer your throats
CHORUS
Here it comes, be afraid (Of what will happen) Succumb to violence
The threat is a sign When words turn in to the murdered
We are here and terror strikes this city like a matchstick sulfur in your skin
You lack confidence, we slay heroes at their knees Fear stands in front of us so high, platforms could kiss
the sky
Smell the burning of your fellow citizens
CHORUS
Offer your throats this the weapon Offer your throats, succumb to the violence Terror Will Teach You Take some chances and you'll find That these moments are all we have together Death inspires but life prevails, for you.
