when i fall asleep tonight, kiss me i missed you today too i only thought about you show me your love so i won't leave you even when the morning comes the words, "let's break up" don't exist between us only u, the words that you sweetly whispered into my ears

only u, the words that i really wanted to hear from you only u, only u, only u i only love you, forever

only u

on rainy days, be my umbrella on snowy winter nights, sing for me hug me in your embrace so that sad tears can't fall i want to be in love like a main actress in a movie

for many many days stay next to me while we care about each other affectionately can you imagine? just the two of us like the balloon full of love we carefully fill it with memories careful that it will pop let's forget about the worries in my imagination, it's you and i holding hands in a house i will keep this kind love until the end of the earth

only u, only u, only u

forever baby

only u, only the smile that you show me only u, the lips that told me love
only u only u only u
you are my only love, forever only
