Words cannot describe things I've seen
Empty faces surrounding me
Marching for freedom and life's spent
Fighting for you makes my heart repent
Words cannot describe things I've seen
Empty faces surrounding me
Marching for freedom and life's spent
Fighting for you makes my heart repent

Fight for
Our lord
Martyred
Restored
Fight for
Our lord
Martyred
Restored

I'm martyred with your name
Fallen angels are to blame
I fight for the kingdom
And wait for my time to come

I'm marked with the seven
Fighting against the six
My spot awaits in heaven
My sin I'll have to fix

THIS IS WHAT WE FIGHT FORÂ...

I'm marked with the seven
Fighting against the six
My spot awaits in heaven
My sin I'll have to fix
My spot awaits in heaven
My sin I'll have to fix
